“Boștină & Associates” Law Firm replaces its Iași local team

October the 31st, 2011 – Bucharest. After its collaboration agreements with the lawyers Irina Arnăutu and Dana Bostan have terminated, “Boștină & Associates” has replaced its local team from Iași by two new appointments, namely two associate lawyers, Helga Fenea and Vasile Ciobanu, respectively.

Helga Fenea, a 2007 graduate from the Law School of “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași, is a former Erasmus-Socrates scholar in Spanish private law. Helga became a member of the Iași Bar Association in December 2008 and a permanent lawyer in April 2011. Her areas of expertise cover commercial law, corporate law, insolvency law, administrative and tax litigation and civil law.

“In my opinion the legal profession is a field of many challenges that generate continuing discipline and improvement; joining Boștină & Associates is an opportunity that takes me to a whole new level of professional performance, fully compatible with my career ambitions,” says Helga Fenea.

Vasile Ciobanu is a 2002 graduate from the Law School of “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași and a member of the Iași Bar Association. He has provided legal assistance and representation to individuals and entities before courts of law in commercial matters, insolvency proceedings, administrative and tax law matters, and has provided legal assistance during negotiations, debt recoveries and judicial enforcements, as well as during civil law, criminal law, and family law matters.
